Background

“The most powerful person in the world is the storyteller.”

- Steve Jobs

Need

Passback Relies on Industry Partners and Donations

How can we increase the number of stories collected to fully visualize Passback's impact to current and potential donors?

Story Collection to Support Passback's Vision

Our Goal

Through our 3-part strategy, we aim to receive stories from 40% of all recipient organizations.

Story sharing leads to increased awareness of the benefits of circular economy.

Passback's Vision
Creating a circular economy for sports gear & textiles, so every kid can play.

Our Primary Audience is Coaches & Parents

Passback gear is donated to schools and nonprofits serving child athletes.

However…
direct contact with children is limited due to school and organization privacy policies

→ Target Coaches and Parents

Reinforced Messaging Unifies our Strategy

"Your stories matter to us and change the trajectory of the number of donations we receive"

"Your stories will be shared with current/potential donors to help more kids access sports"

"These stories mean as much to us as the equipment means to you"

Passback Gear Delivery Day Checklist

Passback Gear Delivery Checklist

Representative Name: _____ Date: _____
Organization/School: _____
Primary Contact Name: _____ Role: _____

1. Pre-Exchange Preparation

- ☐ Verify inventory counts match the delivery manifest.
- ☐ Ensure all gear is cleaned, sorted, and properly bagged/labeled.
- ☐ Have extra business cards or "Impact Flyers" with QR codes for the staff.

2. Physical Hand-off

- ☐ Review Inventory: Walk through the items with the AD/Coach.
- ☐ Condition Check: Confirm they are satisfied with the quality of the gear.
- ☐ Signature: Have the recipient sign the delivery receipt.

3. Story & Impact Capture (The "Why")

- ☐ Explain to the AD/coach about the new QR codes—there are codes attached to every piece of gear, so parents and students can scan them, which leads to a survey they can fill out with written or video stories or simply submit photos. Say "Your stories matter to us and change the trajectory of the amount of donations they receive"
- ☐ Inform them that the follow-up email with the impact statement will also include a more in-depth video explaining the story's importance. Say, "Your stories will be shared with current and potential donors so that we can help more kids like yours access sports!" Encourage them to share the video in the email with the families receiving the gear.
- ☐ Ask the AD/coach to pass the message to students and families. Give them flyers to hand out. Say, "These stories mean as much to us and the equipment means to you."

4. Media & Follow-up

- ☐ Photos: Take a photo of the gear with the staff (and athletes, if waiver-cleared).
- ☐ Social Media: Ask if they are okay with a shout-out on Passback's socials.
- ☐ Thank You: Leave a "Thank You" note or sticker for the equipment room.

Asking in Person Engages Coaches

- Face-to-face interaction
- Invokes reciprocity norm
- Happy to be asked for a way to give back[1]

A Checklist is a Reminder for Passback to Ask for Stories

- Builds on existing process
- Easy to use
- Minimal costs

Cost
Production Cost

Time cost only; videos can be reusable year-over-year

Free Tools like CapCut, Canva, iMovie

$0 per year

Annual Hard Cost: ~$177.75

Risk & Mitigations

Part 1: Delivery Day Checklist

Low Coach Engagement

"Staff may rush delivery and skip the story entirely"

- Script 2-sentence story into checklist
- Suggested phrasing keeps it natural
- Minimal added time

Inconsistent Execution

"Different Staff Members handle deliveries differently"

- Require a checklist sign-off step before leaving site
- Add manager review column

Part 2: QR Code Survey

Low QR Scan Rate

"Families ignore an unexplained sticker, easily overlooked"

- Coach verbal warm-up
- Add a clear CTA: "Scan to help more kids play!"

Privacy & Consent Barriers

"Schools/Orgs restrict media submissions"

- Survey states submissions are voluntary
- Offer a text only option so it avoid uploading child's photos

Part 3: "Pass It On" Video Series

Videos Not Forwarded

"Org leaders receive the video but don't pass it on to families"

- Keep video under 2 minutes
- Frame as empowerment, not as a charity obligation

High Production Burden

"Small team with no marketing staff struggles to make content"

- Film on phone, no equipment needed
- Videos can be reused

Visualization

A World Where Everyone Feels Heard

Action

A Smooth and Easy Implementation

Create Videos
- write scripts ~1hr
- film videos ~1hr

Create Checklist
- edit mock-up ~30min

Create QR code
- make survey link ~30min
- create QR code ~10min

~ 1 month (1 week per strategy)

Buy Materials

~ 1-2 weeks

Attach Stickers
~2 hrs to add stickers

Send Impact Email w/ Video
~15 additional min

Use Checklist @ Exchange

~ additional 150 min per exchange

Receive Stories!!

Potential Strategy Expansion Ideas

Extend the QR Code Beyond Just Stickers

Offer printed flyers to be distributed at events, pickup days, or partner orgs to give families another touchpoint to scan and share their ideas

“Pass It On” Initiative

A video series where recipients “pass it on” to the next person, sharing their story and nominating another family or child, creating a chain of storytelling and community connection.

Passback Flashback Creates Ripples

Part 1: Delivery Day Checklist

- Builds on current process
- Easy to implement
- Minimal costs

Part 2: QR Code Survey

- Zero friction access
- Wide funnel
- Give families autonomy

Part 3: “Pass It On” Video Series

- Remote face-to-face impact
- Instructional and motivational
- Personalization

With this 3-part strategy targeting coaches and parents emphasizing camaraderie and impact, Passback will be collect impactful stories from 40% of all recipient organizations within 2026.
